The girl was rushed to the Kingston Hospital in the corner ambulance where X-rays will be taken to determine the extent of her injuries.

According to Officers Joseph F. Fallon and Henry Ronneberg, who investigated, Mrs. Murphy was driving down the Hasbrouck avenue hill near the child's home, when the girl ran out into the street in front of the auto.

The child was bruised about the head and body.

tion of clothing to the auditorium Saturday morning.

The collection of clothing started at 8 o'clock this morning as the big trucks began rolling through the city streets. The trucks were more quickly loaded where householders had placed the clothing in piles on the curb or on the front porch where it could be easily seen from the street.

Every truck carried a group of Boy Scouts who picked up the bundles of clothing from the curbs and porches and loaded them into the trucks.

Harry Edson, superintendent of recreation, who was assisting in the work at the auditorium this morning, when questioned said it was impossible to estimate the amount of clothing collected, as the drive was not completed, and as fast as one truck was unloaded another would roll up to the doors with another load.

Mr. Edson believed that when the drive ended this afternoon that it would far exceed all expectations.

Financial and Commercial

New York, April 20 (AP)—Ralls led a selective rally in today's stock market after considerable indifference had been displayed by leaders during the early part of the proceedings.

Caution still was the watchword because of the thought that the technical correction of the lengthy upswing might have farther to go. Investment demand, however, revived on the idea that profit selling had been well absorbed and that liquidation generally failed to follow through. Confidence in post-war prosperity was a recovery factor.

Mixed tendencies prevailed until the carriers began to attract bids. Dealings, active during the buying flurry, soon slowed and gains running to 2 points were trimmed in most cases near the fourth hour.

Prominent on the upside were Santa Fe, K. C. Southern, Southern Pacific, Pere Marquette, Chrysler, Hudson Motors, Engineers Public Service, International Harvester, FlintRote, Standard Oil (N.J.), Sears Roebuck and Goodrich.

Secondary railway bonds advanced. Commodities were uneven.

Boys Come Close To Wrecking Train

Judge Threatens To Be Severe in the Future

Obstructions placed on the tracks of the West Shore Railroad recently by two very young boys resulted in the pair being brought before Judge John M. Cashin in Children's Court recently. The obstructions placed on the rails were of sufficient size to have derailed a train had not their discovery been made before a train passed, said Sergeant Everett W. Schoonmaker of the New York Central Police.

At the conclusion of the hearing the boys were found to be delinquent and were placed on probation. However, the court indicated that it was through being lenient in this type of juvenile delinquency. "This practice of placing obstructions on railroad tracks is an extremely dangerous one," said Judge Cashin, "and might easily derail a train, injuring or killing crew members or passengers."

Why Some Men Fail
Many and varied are the causes that lead to failure. Some are beyond our control but most of them we can control if we act before it is too late.

Some of the most important causes that lead to failure are:
Finding fault with the other fellow but never seeing our own.
Doing as little as possible and trying to get as much as possible for what little you do do.

Slendering those we do not like or those who do not like us.
Procrastination—The habit of putting off until tomorrow or some vague time in the future, those things we should have done the day before yesterday.

Disloyalty to those who have trusted us.
The false idea that "we know it all and no one can teach us anything more."
Spending too much time showing up the other fellow's weak points and too little time correcting our own.

Unwillingness to forego some selfish pleasure or gratification in order to achieve our objective.
Lack of the necessary training, education or understanding to enable us to stand at the head in our profession or line of work.

Too little or the wrong kind of advertising.
Not understanding how to budget our time or finances.
The bugaboo that competition can out-distance us and trying to undersell a competitor in price of quality or both.

Lack of consideration for others and putting self-interest above the interest and service of your customers or the firm that pays you your living.

Man (to never do well drinking friend)—What! Married? How did you ever get a wife?
Drinking Friend—Just sobered up and there she was.

Certainty
I sometimes question in my mind Who made grim winter's bitter wind;
But I am sure about one thing—I know that God created Spring.
—Norman I. Schiller

Teacher (in Junior High School)—Paraphrase the sentence: "He was in high dudgeon."
Pupil—He was in a cell on the top floor.

Patton Forces Weimar
Civilians to Visit Camp
Paris, April 19 (AP)—Lt. Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., has compelled a large part of the civil population of Weimar, including men, women and children, to visit the Buchenwald prison camp and see for themselves the horrors of the Nazi regime, liberated Frenchmen said today.

Patton was horrified by the conditions he found, the French said, ordered all prisoners moved out and then had military police line up all the civilians they could find in Weimar and march them to the camp.

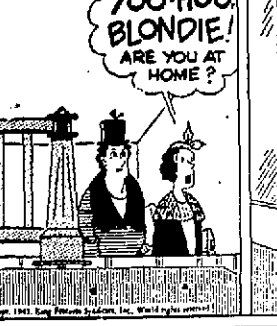

The doors of the crematories were opened, exposing burned and semi-burned bodies of the victims. On being marched past these over some Germans tried not to look at the spectacle, but the renegades said American officers, on Patton's orders, compelled the Germans to turn their heads toward the scene.

The French quoted the officers as saying to the Germans: "You must look at this. You are responsible for it."

Supervisors' Wage Increases Vetoed By Governor

Albany, N. Y., April 20 (U.P.)—Governor Dewey vetoed today bills which would have granted salary increases to supervisors of 10 counties.
Counties involved in the proposals are Suffolk, St. Lawrence, Hamilton, Orleans, Chautauque, Washington, Rockland, Oneida and Columbia.
"At the present time," Dewey said, "the boards of supervisors do not have the power to fix their own compensation. On a number of occasions I have commented upon the desirability of increasing the exercise of the powers of home rule in fixing the compensation of local officials."

The state commission for the recodification of the county law, the governor continued, now is studying legislation which would empower boards of supervisors to fix their own compensation.
"It would, therefore, seem undesirable for these bills to be approved until that commission has had a chance to make its recommendations to the Legislature and until the Legislature has had the opportunity to pass upon these recommendations," he said.
Dewey also vetoed a measure recommending disapproval of the bills on the same ground.
Dewey also vetoed a measure which would have permitted the conversion of frame buildings for occupancy as multiple dwellings provided the owner installed fire-protection equipment.

The governor said New York City Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia had written him that the "supposedly protective features of this bill would merely serve to cloak and conceal a serious fire hazard in order to add to the financial returns to be gained from the maintenance of such structures."
Another bill vetoed by Dewey would have permitted municipalities to construct buildings, parks or monuments at their own expense as war memorials.
State Comptroller Frank C. Moore opposed the measure, Dewey said, because of technical defects in the bill.
Among bills signed by Dewey were measures which:

Authorize the State Traffic Commission to regulate operation, instead of maintenance of traffic control signals and lights on state highways, and remove provision for state maintenance of those lights regulating traffic at schools, firehouses and entrances to private property.
Authorize the transfer to the city of Newburgh of Barge Canal Terminal lands on the west bank of the Hudson river.

All tickets that were sold for the postponed dance will be honored at the dance on the 27th.

Conducting Lodge
Frances Schuerlein of Route 2, Kingston, has filed a certificate with the county clerk stating she is doing business as Woodland Lodge on the Brown Station-Store Church road in the town of Marletown.

Sorry... NO WARD WEEK THIS SPRING

This ad does NOT present WARD WEEK, which usually comes at this time of the year. It does announce, however, a selection of timely merchandise, at Wards traditional low prices. Some of the items have been cut in price, too, in full accordance with the War Production Board's regulations on such matters. But, because these regulations won't permit us to cut all the prices, and because merchandise shortages prevent us from bringing you all the things you usually expect in WARD WEEK, we do not feel justified in calling this a Ward Week sale. Of course, we all expect shortages these days! But in spite of shortages, we think you'll be pleasantly surprised by the merchandise in this ad. Study it carefully. You'll find that Wards, as always, brings you the best quality possible; at the economy prices traditional at Montgomery Ward.

Roosevelt Death Might Have Effect on State Politics

resulting from the passing of Roosevelt are not confined to the Mead situation.

Its immediate bearing already has been shown in New York city, where the mayoralty contest has become a jumble of question marks.

The broadest effect remains to be seen throughout the state, particularly among the minority parties, whose balance of power gave the Democrats victory in recent statewide elections.

The importance of minority party support was demonstrated most clearly last November when Roosevelt received a combined total of 826,649 American Labor and Liberal party votes, which enabled him to carry the state by 316,591. Many Republicans insist, however, that a large share of these ballots, particularly among the 329,233 Liberal votes, were cast by Republicans wary of wartime change of administration and at the same time loath to put an "X" in the Democratic column.

The minority parties—or at least the Liberals—so these sources insist, reached their high point in 1934.

'Chemical Torpedo' Is Reported by Navy

Washington, April 20 (AP)—Existence of a new, top-secret "chemical torpedo" in the Navy's arsenal came to light today.

Although officially disclosed, requests for further details on the weapon brought no information from the Navy except that the subject is "secret."

Such information as was released in publicly printed congressional hearings, gave no indication of the significance of the name "chemical," but it evidently applies to a modification of the old style steam-turbine propulsion.

Such evidence is found in the fact that existing naval establishments equipped to reassemble those underwater missiles after they have been "ranged" in firing tests will do the same work on the new type.

Torpedoes probably are the most complex, delicately assembled and hence most costly wholly expendable instruments of destruction in the whole field of ordnance. Pre-war costs ranged up to $15,000 each, although wartime mass production has brought their cost down to about $5,000 a unit.
